"Jessica Roemischer transformed the entire 2009 Spiral Dynamics Conference into something it has never been before. (Her presentation) was a remarkable happening and all who were there can support that observation." Dr. Don Beck, CEO National Values Center, Dallas, TX

"Jessica's work is brilliant and heartfelt in equal measure! I walked away feeling more grounded in my humanity and optimistic that we can sustain the global transformation of consciousness currently underway." Rafael Nasser, iNYC

Pianist, educator and Integral thinker, Jessica Roemischer graduated magna cum laude from Princeton University, and has taught and performed internationally for nearly three decades. Her pedagogical lineage links directly to Frederic Chopin and Ludwig van Beethoven. Jessica's eclectic background includes writing on aesthetics, culture, visual arts, spirituality, and social change. A former Senior Editor of What is Enlightenment? Magazine, she dialogued with some of the world's cultural and spiritual icons, including Archbishop Desmond Tutu, Carlos Santana, Eve Ensler, Huston Smith and many others. Dr. Don Beck called her major article on Spiral Dynamics, "the single most powerful piece in the history of the SD movement."

Cost: Evening performance - $20/$10 students; Workshop - $70/$50 students
